RELIGIOUS.

Notes From the Churches and Societies.

Mr. John H. Appell will conduct the men's meeting at the rooms, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. We earnestly invite all young men of Waco to attend this meeting, and also any strangers in our city will receive a warm welcome.

Preparatory bible class in the junior department room at 2 o'clock to-morrow. Boys from 8 to 13 years are invited.

Junior bible class in the parlor, at 2 o'clock, to which boys from 16 to 20 will be welcomed.

Special gospel meeting for boys in the junior department room at 3 o'clock to-morrow, to which the boys of the city are not only invited but urged to come.

The association is again under renewed obligations to Prof Edgerton, and the young ladies of Waco Female college, who furnished such excellent music for our men's meeting, last Sunday afternoon. The management and students of Waco Female College have always been ready and willing to help on the work of the Young Men's Christian Association in this city.

On next Friday night, Jan. 29, the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary will give an oyster supper at the rooms. This will be quite a social feature, and all who are interested in the work are cordially invited to be present.

The past week has been a good one for the gymnasium, considerable interest being taken.

It is hoped that all members will be a little more punctual and regular in attendance.

The little boys' class was better than ever last week, and if our subscribers will send the boys the greatest care will be taken with them, and such instruction given as best suits the growing boy. Tickets will be given them without extra cost.

The Pastor's Union will meet as usual, at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, Monday evening, January 25, at 10 o'clock. All pastors of the city are urged to attend. H. A. BOURLAND, president.

A Change.

Mr. J. B. Daniels, foreman of this office both under the old and new managements, has resigned his position to take charge of the job office purchased of the late John Lehr. Mr. Daniels has ever been faithful to duty, has shown himself of the highest confidence, and possessed of much skill as a typo. Regretting to lose him on the Central Texan force, we heartily commend him to the business public.—Central Texan.

The Kings Daughters.

The Kings Daughters have issued invitations to a benefit given for their fund, by the "Historians," on Thursday evening Jan. 28, at Goggans Hall. The affair promises to be a success, as it certainly should, being in a noble cause and under skillful management.

THE BONDS SOLD.

Chairman Hawkins Receives a Bid of 95 Cents.

AND THE COUNCIL ACCEPTS

The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company the Purchasers. The News Demanded a Speedy Sale From Those Who Repudiated the Mayor's Sale, and They Have Repented—Interview With Chairman Hawkins.

Chairman Hawkins, of the finance committee, received a telegram from Mr. H. L. Palmer, president of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, offering 95 cents and accrued interest for the remaining city bonds. Mr. Hawkins laid the matter before a special meeting of the council at 6 o'clock last night and the bid was accepted, and the mayor and finance committee were authorized to close the deal. A News representative called upon Mr. Hawkins this morning and asked him about the sale. Mr. Hawkins said:

In asking the city council to allow me to offer the remaining $130,000 bonds at 95c with accrued interest to the city, I felt that I had a load to carry, on account of the manner in which the bonds had been previously handled. The former sale of part of our bonds at 90c, not only hurt the sale of those remaining, but will seriously effect the sale of any future issue.

When our bonds were first issued Mr. C. G. Morgan, general agent of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, asked for the proper data certified by the secretary to place before his company, but after repeated requests, receiving no encouragement and being unable to get the proper data, his company concluded that we did not wish to sell them any bonds. After the sale of the $100,000 block, I asked Mr. Morgan to again take up the matter with his company and that I would procure him the proper data. He did so and upon receipt of same his company wired me an offer of 92 1-2 net with accrued interest to the city. I again consulted Mr. Morgan, and he asked me to await until he could write them. I did so, with the result that I received an offer from this company of 95c net and accrued interest to city for the remaining bonds, and their offer has been accepted. To Mr. C. G. Morgan, general agent of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, belongs the principal credit for the sale.

The proceedings yesterday afternoon was concluded by the following resolution by Alderman West:

Resolved, That the offer for the purchase of Waco city bonds as contained in the following telegram from H. L. Palmer, president of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company to W. E. Hawkins, chairman of the finance committee, of date Jan. 23d, 1892, which telegram reads as follows:

MILWAUKEE, WIS.,
Jan. 22, 1892.

W. E. Hawkins, Chairman Finance Committee:

Letter of 18th received too late to reply yesterday. I am authorized to offer ninety-five cents per dollar for one hundred and thirty thousand Waco city five per cent. thirty year bonds, interest payable semi-annually. Interest and principal payable in New York delivered here, and pay for same in New York exchange or Milwaukee funds as preferred; provided, that we shall be satisfied, on examination, that such bonds have been regularly issued by competent authority and are in all respects legal and valid obligations of the city of Waco, and each bond and coupon perfect and duly executed and free from alterations and interlineations; you to furnish us with duly authenticated copies of all proceedings authorizing and leading up to and connected with the issue and sale of such bonds, and showing their validity. The bonds are thirty thousand sewer, second series and one hundred thousand street, thirty series.

H. L. PALMER,
President.

Be and the same is hereby accepted in terms as made, and the mayor and finance committee are hereby authorized to do all things necessary to complete the transaction.

The above resolution was adopted unanimously and the chairman of the finance committee was instructed to telegraph the acceptance of the bid. The following telegram was received

E. E. Thompson HOUSE and SIGN PAINTING.

Interior Decorating and Paper Hanging a Specialty; Also Dealer in Painters Supplies and Wall Paper.

E. E. Thompson
SIXTH STREET NEAR FRANKLIN.
WACO, TEXAS.

ed later than the above which was also read:

W. E. HAWKINS—Chairman:
My telegram of this date should have read 95 cents and accrued interest, please so read it.

H. L. PALMER, President.
The meeting then adjourned.

HATTIE TYREE ON TRIAL.

She is being Examined Before Justice Harrison for the Murder of George Kittle.

The examining trial of Hattie Tyree, charged with the murder of George Kittle on January 19th, 1892, commenced before Justice Jack Harrison this morning. The state is represented by County Attorney Joe W. Taylor and L. T. Williams, and the defendant by Messrs. Waller S. Baker and R. H. and F. H. Kingsbury.

The county attorney stated to the court at the opening of the case that it was the right of the defendant to make a voluntary statement, and that if she desired to take advantage of this right it should be done then. The defendant, through one of her attorneys, waived the reading of the complaint and stated that she did not desire to make a voluntary statement.

The first witness, Bob Noel, was called and testified in substance as follows: I know defendant and knew deceased, who is now dead. He died last Wednesday, the 20th of January. I was present on the 19th when a difficulty occurred between George Kittle and defendant at the reservation. It occurred at Hattie Tyree's house, near 2 o'clock in the morning. John Klide, Kittle and I, went into the parlor. We had not been there more than ten minutes when defendant came in and from her looks and actions she was drunk. In three or four minutes we all got up to go out. From some remark John Klide made about a man in her room, defendant wanted to strike him (Klide), and Kittle caught her around the waist to hold her and said to her: "Hold on you can't do anything," and held her. He held her for a few minutes and I walked out on the steps. I heard her say to Kittle: "You son of a b—." Deceased told her not to call him that, he would pull her out in the street. At that time deceased was on the outside and the defendant inside, and he was trying to pull her out. He either turned her loose or she got loose and she went back into her room and then Mr. Foster came to the front door. Foster said to Kittle: "Maybe you want to punch me," deceased said, "no, but I am not afraid of you." Foster and Kittle were then walking back up the hall and stopped in front of defendant's room door. They had only been there a short time before defendant opened her door with a pistol in her hand and shot. When the pistol went off I left in the direction of town but changed my mind and went back looking for Kittle. I met John Klide before I saw Kittle and he said Kittle was shot. We went back and found Kittle in the hall, he was standing up bleeding. I sent after a hack, put him in it and conveyed him to the Royal Hotel, and sent for a doctor. He was wounded in the groins. The cross-examination of the witness elicited no additional evidence of importance, except that the witness thought the deceased was a pretty good man and the defendant a slight woman.

Court then adjourned till 2 o'clock p. m.

The court room is crowded with spectators to hear the evidence. The defendant is a total physical wreck, weighing, it is said, only about 65 pounds, and from her present appearance it is not likely she will live through her final trial.

Supposed Bride in Trouble.

WICHITA, Kan., Jan. 23.—A young woman giving the name of Howells, and claiming to be from Salina, who, in company with her supposed husband, has been at the Commercial Hotel here for a week, was arrested this evening, charged with systematically robbing the guests of the house. In her trunks were found a number of stolen articles. The couple on arrival claimed to have been married at Salina just before coming here. Howells accompanied the prisoner to the jail, and then left, saying that he would secure the necessary bond for her release. He, however, has not showed up since, either at the jail or hotel, and it is believed he has left town.

Supreme Court Decisions.

GALVESTON, Jan. 23.—The following cases were disposed of in the supreme court yesterday:

Affirmed—Michelson et al vs. Showalter, from Webb; Anderson vs. City of Fort Worth, from Tarrant; Austin vs. Cameron & Co., from Mills; Phoenix Insurance Company vs. Barm et al.

Reversed and remanded—Cockrell vs. Curtis, from Dallas; Schumacher et al vs. Russell, from Neches.

Motion for rehearing refused—Smith vs. Traders' National Bank, from Tarrant.

Wants His Brother's Wealth.

CRESTON, Ia., Jan. 23.—Today there is a claimant for the estate of Thomas G. Mulligan, the mysterious recluse, who died six weeks ago, leaving a large estate. The man is Christopher Mulligan of Peoria county, Ill., and a native of County Mayo, Ireland. He says that although he has not seen his brother Thomas in thirty-seven years he recognized his body in the coffin. The family resemblance is strong and there is little doubt that his story is true. He is about 60 years old.

Lectured the Full Bench.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The justices of the supreme court of the United States were astonished and a mild sensation created in court by the manner in which ex-Senator Edmunds, who was counsel in a case, in argument, criticized the court and stated his opinion that it was entirely wrong in its decision in the celebrated original package case from Iowa. The ex-senator was in excellent spirits, and he lectured the court in the benignant, amiable manner familiar to his colleagues on the senate floor. With great diffidence he said that he felt it his duty to tell the court that it had gone wrong in its construction of the constitution in its decision in the Loisy vs. Hardin case (the original package case). The principle laid down in that case was one dangerous to the security of the people of the individual states. He urged the court to go back to the true doctrine in this case while there was yet time.

Ballard's Snow Liniment.

This liniment is different in composition from any other liniment on the market. It is a scientific discovery, which results in its being the most penetrating liniment ever known. There are numerous white imitations, which may be recommended because they pay the seller a greater profit. Beware of these and demand Ballard's Snow Liniment. It positively cures rheumatism, Neuralgia, cuts, sprains, bruises, wounds, sciatic and inflammatory rheumatism, burns, scalds, sore feet, contracted muscles, stiff joints, old sores, pain in back, barb wire cuts, sore chest or throat and especially beneficial to paralysis.

A Card from Marshal Nell.

Editor of the Waco Evening News.

Will you kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to vindicate W. C. Clay, deputy marshal, and myself? The manner in which Policeman Briggs' trial was conducted before the city council, and the cause of his acquittal: 1st. The honorable acquitted Briggs had three very eminent attorneys to defend him. The only way those eminent lawyers had to clear their miserable and unworthy client was to get rid of the witnesses against the Honorable Acquitted Briggs, which they succeeded in doing, by telling them that the city council had no legal right to make them testify in the case, and persuaded them to leave which they did before the trial, leaving the city council without any testimony to convict the Honorable Acquitted W. T. Briggs. If he was not guilty of the charges why did he the Honorable Acquitted Briggs fear the testimony of the city council witnesses? Because Policeman Briggs knew he was guilty and if the evidence was taken before the city council he would be discharged from the police force, that is the reason why the witnesses were persuaded away.

Respectfully, ALF. C. NEILL,

City Marshal.

Waco, Jan. 23 1892.

The Work Commenced.

The work on the J. Harsel Wood building has commenced in good earnest. The partition wall has been removed this week. The large plate glass for the front windows are on the ground, and in a very few days Waco can boast of having a clothing house second to none in the state.

Mr. Wood's change of business sale is "still on," and judging from the trade he has enjoyed since the holidays, the people have fully appreciated his reduced prices which on a number of articles is below actual New York cost.

His $15.50 suits are not to be matched in the city, and THE NEWS would advise its readers to call this week and get the benefit of the greatest reductions ever offered in this city.
